

The Biggest Kind of a Change that Ever Happened to Any Magazine Has Happened This Month to

THE SCRAP BOOK

THE SCRAP BOOK for July is issued in two sections—two complete magazines, each with its own cover and its own table of contents. One of these sections is an ALL-ILLUSTRATED magazine; the other is an ALL-FICTION magazine. Each is a mammoth magazine in itself. The one presents an overwhelming array of human interest articles and illustrations; the other an enormous tonnage of fiction—160 pages of absorbing stories.

Ten years ago I created a new type of magazine—the ALL-FICTION magazine. Now I am creating another distinct type—the ALL-ILLUSTRATED magazine. This is the age of specialization. The conventional magazine, with its smattering of illustrations and its smattering of fiction and its smattering of special articles, doesn't contain enough of any one thing to make it satisfying. The ALL-FICTION magazine and the ALL-ILLUSTRATED magazine, joined together as a unit, strengthen each other, and make something really big and forceful and convincing.

The Only Way to Know a Thing is to Try It

The two-section magazine idea is brand-new to the world. It is not quite new with me, however, as I have given it, at odd times, four or five years of thought. It first came into my mind in response to a desire to couple, in some way, the strength of the all-fiction magazine with the illustrated features of the conventional magazine. It has been a difficult problem to work out. Now that the idea is perfected, I wish to see what there is in it. It looks to me to be very good, but the only way to know a thing is to try it.

Two Magazines for a Quarter—Easy Money

The price of this two-part magazine is twenty-five cents, which is equal to twelve and one-half cents a magazine. Most magazines which were selling at ten cents have been advanced to fifteen cents. THE SCRAP BOOK in two parts means two magazines for twenty-five cents against thirty cents for two fifteen cent magazines.

A batting rally started by Steve Ragan in the ninth inning and another in the twelfth started by Olson pulled Monday's game out of the fire and placed it to the credit of the locals after twelve innings of the hardest kind of playing without an error by the White Sox. There was a large attendance for a Monday game, there being about twelve hundred people in the grand stands and bleachers. And everyone went home satisfied. They all got their money's worth. The playing of the teams at times was almost phenomenal.

The champs put up the best exhibition in the field that has ever been seen on the local diamond. In all sixty-one chances were handled by our team without an error. The local bunch also pulled off four hair raising double plays which added greatly to the interest of the game.

For the Wichita bunch Cy Young, the undefeated brushwood boy, essayed to twirl the game. He got away in fair shape until the ninth inning when the locals took to his delivery in a way that made Mr. Young feel much older and caused him to leave a huge Cy. In this round after two men had retired as prey to the deceptions of his delivery two stinging hits sent a run across the plate.

Halla worked on the mound for the locals and pitched a good steady game all the way through. Only in one inning of the twelve were the visitors able to score on him.

The scoring started as usual with the champs. In the second inning

Erwin started the first bunch of fireworks. A single was the result of his time at bat. Ragan produced a neat little sacrifice which worked with as much perfection as an Elgin movement. And then Lou Runkle showed that he understands a little about the hitting game and placed a scorching double down the left field line to the fence. Erwin couldn't help but score.

In the seventh inning after the visitors had not been unable to reach further than second base the locals founds Halla for two runs. Becker started the trouble by laying down a bunt and then beating it out. Hettling sacrificed and Bayless flew out to Hurlbert. Holland was the next batter and while he was being hissed by the crowd for his assault upon Umpire Guthrie a few days ago he planted one out near the fence which Lawler very nearly took care of. This scored Becker and Weaver getting a hard hit sent Holland across the rubber. The decision at the plate was rather close but Umpire Eckman gave it to Holland which was right. In a previous inning he had called Abbott out on a similar play, however, in which Abbott was undoubtedly safe.

However, this was all for the visitors and looked about all the White Sox could get. In the ninth inning after Davis rolled a sickly looking grounder down to Hettling and Abbott had popped up a little fly to the elongated Buck Weaver the fans rose in their seats and started for the cars. But they were too hasty. Ragan and Runkle had not yet been disposed of. Ragan doubled and Runkle singled him home with a hard drive to left field. From this time on it was nip and tuck until the twelfth inning. In the eleventh Young struck out three men in succession. In the twelfth inning Runkle, first man up, made an infield out, but Olson singled and was followed with another by Halla. Lawler flew out to Becker but Spec Hurlbert was the hero of the hour. A single over third base forever settled the game and everyone was satisfied.

Catcher Weaver—Front and Rear Views.

The work of Ragan and Olson around the keystone of the diamond was sensational and they pulled off four brilliant double plays which frustrated the hopes of the visitors at several stages of the game. Halla started one double by stopping a hot liner from Milan's bat in the third inning. The fans contributed to his bank account for the feat which looked almost impossible. For the Wichita team Becker pulled off a brilliant catch from Lawler's bat in the tenth inning.

isions. His decisions favored Wichita but as they did not affect the final outcome of the game they will be passed up by the fans. Evidently Eckman is trying to do the fair thing.
